Valuable Campaign Document!

AN EXTRA COURIER!

We have issued an EXTRA COURIER containing eighteen columns of matter, which should be placed before the people during the pending canvas. It contains:

1. President Jefferson Davis's Message to the Confederate Congress.

2. Ex-Gov. Clark's S. Morehead's powerful letter.

3. The British husses corps' cascade of Chief Just & Tandy.

4. Daniel Webster on the President's power to employ force against the States, and the Southern Confederacy.

5. The Legislature of Kentucky protest against the attempt by the Federal Government to coerce the Confederate States, as they were in 1861 and 1862.

Maryland, originally a Catholic State, is one yet; and Maryland is crushed beneath the iron heel of despotic power, though she is in the Union, and has never been loyal to it.

6. A voice from Henry Clay.

7. Judge Nicholls on Martial Law.

8. Resolutions adopted by the Union Society in Louisville on the 8th day of January, 1861.

9. Address of the Union State Central Committee to Kentucky to the people of the Commonwealth.

10. Resolutions adopted by the Southern Rights men at Louisville.

11. Gen. Sam Houston's position—his speech to the people of Houston, Texas.

The EXTRA will be furnished to parties or clubs wishing to circulate it, at the low price of $1.50 per hundred copies, or where as many as one thousand are ordered that number will be supplied for $10. The cash must in all cases accompany the order.

Horatio W. Bruce.

Southern Rights candidate in the Seventh Congressional District, will address his fellow-citizens at the following times and places, to wit:

Monday, June 17, at La Grange, Oldham County.

Tuesday, June 18, at Pleasureville, Henry County.

Wednesday, June 19, at Jeffersontown, Oldham County.

Public Speaking.

W. T. Haigis will address the citizens at the Falls City Market House Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

12. F. Simml and W. S. Paylor will address the citizens of Henry County on Monday, and a Franklin, on Breckinridge's Ridge, Tuesday next. Speaking commence at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Gov. Morehead's Speech.

Publication of the full report of Magoffin's speech at the Court on Saturday evening is now delayed until tomorrow.

TAC THE GENERALS. —There is a good deal of dissatisfaction among the regular officers of the U. S. Army, regarding so many "new" regiments over the country. Col. in the army said, the other day: "What becomes my Banks to the South?" What does he know about military matters? These political Generals will do well enough as long as there is no fighting, but in battle, without military commanders, it will be more like a mob than an army." Another said: "Hereafter, these swarms of military leaders, will be laughed at as 'Lincoln's Generals.'" It is said that there is danger of some resignations in consequence of this dissatisfaction.

FIRE.—The old Cambridge distillery, at Richmond, Indiana, was entirely destroyed by fire last Friday night. The fire was commanded by the explosion of gas. The loss is estimated at about $100,000. It was owned by Abner Bond and F. Johnson. No insurance.

A fire was discovered in Mr. Sam Patterson's stable, Jeffersonville, on Friday evening, which soon consumed the building. His family home, buggy and several hogs were also ruined. It was the work of an incendiary.

THE BOSTON GAZETTE. —The Boston Gazette announces that "Major General Banks," who is stationed at Baltimore, has caused several combats and forty-two pounds to be brought to bear on the city. The Bostonians are very popular, are irritated by the presence of northern troops, but the conciliatory proclamation enunciated by General Banks removes all apprehensions."

Very conciliatory certainly, those columnists and forty-two pounds threatening to blow the city to atoms. Free country! Glorious country!

VENGEANCE FOR JACKSON. —A Washington dispatch says, bands of guerrillas are hovering in the direction of Fincastle, picking off the men of the picket guard at Alexandria. One of these bands is composed of the relatives of Jackson. They boast of having killed seventeen Zouaves already. In every instance they approach the unsuspecting sentinel in Indian style, and shoot him down before he is aware of their presence.

L. W. Biles, acting Governor of Jefferson Territory, has proclaimed the neutrality of that Territory in the war. Furthermore, he forbids the payment of any debt or future tax to the United States or any body else outside the Territory.

MR. ADAMS'S SUCCESSION. —The Hon. F. Thomas, of Massachusetts, has been chosen to succeed the Hon. Charles Francis Adams in Congress, over Mr. Hale. The vote was as follows: Thomas, 1,149; Hale, 145. Mr. Thomas is a warm Unionist.

THE NOTE FOR BROADBENT GENERAL. —Col. Thos. L. Crittenden was elected Brigadier-General of the first three regiments of Kentucky State Guard, forming the first brigade by a majority of 329 over all contestants.

A SPECIAL DISPATCH to the Cincinnati Enquirer says that the Richmond paper declare the number of Federal troops killed in the battle at Great Bend to exceed three hundred. Quite an advance on the original fourteen.

AN unnatural mother poisoned her daughter in Detroit, Mich., last week because she married the man she loved. The dose wasn't strong enough to kill her, fortunately.

Mr. John Sloan, a comedian of versatile merits and highly regarded in his private relations, has just paid the debt of nature. He died in New York.

DEATH OF AN OLD OFFICER. —Mr. Donald McLean, of Walter Plains, for forty years an innkeeper of the New York Custom House, died on the 10th inst., in his 92d year.

WE SEE IT STATED that there are four widow ladies in Culpepper, Va., who have nineteen sons in the army of the Confederate States.

SEE BLAND'S ADVERTISEMENT. Money loaned on diamonds, &c., Office of Markestrates, between Third and Fourth.

THE SMALL POX is raging in the First and Second Wards.

Daniel Verney died in Lexington, on Wednesday, aged 28 years.

THE WOODRUFF ZOUAVES will be on parade to-day.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY. MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, 1861.

VOLUME 32.

NUMBER 145.

The Administration and the Germans.

The Turritane element, which is the controlling one in Northern society, hates the foreign-born portion of their population as the devil is said to hate water.

Know—Nothing had its rise in New York and Boston; and all the pols in every State in the Union, foreign born citizens and Catholics were banned in the process of incorporation. It swept over the North with resistless power, and had not the gallant Wm. Brown beat it back in Kentucky, it would certainly have driven all who chose to shun God according to the formularies of the Roman Catholic Church, and all who had the misfortune to be born in Germany or Ireland, from the country of their nativity by adoption, and compelled them to seek a city of refuge in some distant country. It contains:

1. President Jefferson Davis's Message to the Confederate Congress.

2. Ex-Gov. Clark's S. Morehead's powerful letter.

3. The British husses corps' cascade of Chief Just & Tandy.

4. Daniel Webster on the President's power to employ force against the States, and the Southern Confederacy.

THE BOSTON GAZETTE. —This morning, brings some additional particulars of the fight at Bethel, on Monday, from which it appears that the Federal forces did not sustain any loss, while the Confederates lost twenty-four men.

The mistake between the regiments, their firing upon each other, and the retreat of the Albany Regiment from Col. Townsend's command, is now fully explained.

They did so, because the Germans had been sent to reinforce the Albany Regiment, and to support Col. Townsend's Albany Regiment.

Dr. Blackburn's Letter to the Journal.

Dr. L. P. BLACKBURN has addressed a letter to the Journal, explanatory of his connection with the recent purchase of arms in the South for the State of Kentucky.

Brave and fearless in action, honest and valiant in counsel, his letter affords a complete vindication of himself and Gov. Magoffin against all the ill-natured and malignant charges of despatch and perfidy, which love, darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil, and who, for that reason, have sought to envelope a straightforward and proper transaction in mystery, to the injury of those concerned in it and of the State.

Here is the Doctor's Letter:

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

GENTLEMEN:—For some weeks my name has frequently appeared in your Journal in connection with the sale of arms to the South, but the spirit of intolerance and exclusiveness on which that order was based, still survives, and to-day the German, the Irish, and the Catholic are most obnoxious to a straightforward and proper transaction in mystery, to the injury of those concerned in it and of the State.

Bond or Free?—The Objects of the North.

The people of America have boasted of their freedom with pardonable pride wherever the spirit of adventure or the love of gain has carried them.

The historic page of the past tell us of the perils, the sufferings, the difficulties, the victories and the defeats of the Revolution of 1776; and no true American has ever pored over the records of that long war without feeling in his heart a sense of patriotism and a desire to sacrifice our freedom, even at our fathers' sufferings, and endured, to preserve the liberty which was won by their valor.

Our cause is recorded in song and story as "the land of the free and the home of the brave," and it seems incredible, if not almost impossible to realize, that even a few of the brave men who were at Valley Forge and Brandywine and Yorktown with Washington, linger among us to fight their battles o'er again, our people have voluntarily passed under the yoke, and are now fighting to sustain such usurpations and such acts of tyranny as no free people ever were called upon before to submit to or endure.

Under the previous pretext of maintaining the Union, after it had been destroyed by the "broken faith" and "bad fellowship" of the people and the States of the North, the statesmen of the free States, who have long labored and intrigued for the dissolution of the Confederacy, finding themselves in power, have gone deliberately to work to subvert the government, and to establish in its stead a monarchy.

They know—STEWART, CHASE, WELLER, BLAIR, LINCOLN—they know the Southern States cannot be conquered; they know at the point of the bayonet; they know that ten millions of freemen, with arms in their hands, cannot be compelled to live in a Government from which they have solemnly and formally separated themselves; they know this war, as far as reconstructing the Union is concerned, is fruitless; and they well know, that soon they will have to recognize the independence of the Confederate States, when the old Union will be overwhelmed with such a debt as no people in the world now owe, while all the material interests of the country will be ruined, and nothing will be on the face of earth.

They know this; but ere that time, with the consent of the people of the free States, obtained by trickery, deception, and fraud, the Government will be changed, Republicanism will have given place to a monarchy, the rights of the States will be lost sight of, rights of person and property will be enjoyed at the will of a Central Government, civil and religious liberty will have no home in the States of the North.

Did the statements and the people of 1776 devote months and years to the consideration, discussion, and adoption of a Constitution, only that it might be set aside, suspended, entirely disregarded at the will of the Executive? But they so guard and insure the power of the President, that he might usurp all power, whenever he might see fit?

Had such been his position, we should most unhesitatingly have urged, implored, our friends in the Eighth District to aid in returning him to the scene of his long public labors and some of his most brilliant achievements, by a unanimous vote. As it is, no Southern Rights man, no matter what his personal feelings may be, can afford to give up his prejudices for Mr. CARTERSON, can vote for him, while it is evident that the friends of the Administration respect neither his views nor his actions.
